The Executive Board welcomes constructive input and involvement from any unit owner. In bringing issues to the Board, unit owners are reminded that the Condominium is a community and its elected Board is made up of neighbors who are serving as volunteers and whose objective is the Condominium's best interest. Differences of opinion are inevitable in any community. Resolution of conflict begins with mutual respect and understanding and ends with effective decision-making.

The Executive Board of the Condominium promulgated the following Rules and Regulations for the safety, well-being and convenience of all unit owners. The Board has the responsibility under the Declaration, for the efficient administration of Condominium affairs and it is, indeed, their duty and authority to interpret and enforce the Condominium Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

BEACHWOOD BAY ESTATES, A CONDOMINIUM Route 191, Cutler, Maine

Beachwood Bay Estates, a Condominium (the “Condominium”) is a private Condominium located at Route 191, Cutler, Maine. The Condominium takes pride in being a quiet, safe and enjoyable place to live, where maintenance of facilities and grounds is a high priority and where the concept of condominium ownership works well.

By virtue of the original Condominium Declaration and organizational By-Laws, the Condominium is a self-managing association with authority for governance vested in an elected Executive Board of the Beachwood Bay Estates Condominium Association (the “Association”). All owners/tenants are subject to common rules, regulations and standards of behavior. All owners are responsible for sharing in the policy, fiscal and managerial decisions that are necessary to ensure that the Condominium remains a desirable community in which to live.

As with any community, rules and regulations are necessary to ensure the peaceful and orderly use and enjoyment of the buildings and common areas. The Rules and Regulations are the Condominium’s means to that end and focus on the permissible uses of the Condominium property. They are both general and specific and are based on condominium law and on preferences established by the original developers and the subsequent owners of the Condominium.

In order to appreciate these rules, a Condominium owner must first:

- Understand and support condominium living for what it is and for what it is not. Owning a condominium and living in a condominium community offers an advantageous lifestyle. However, you must share a great deal (property and decisions) with others. Condominiums are not the same as apartments where you have a landlord to respond to all of your needs. It is also not like owning a single-family home with your own backyard where you are the sole decision maker about maintenance and the use of your property.
- Recognize that in a condominium community, beyond the limits of one’s interior space, one’s personal preferences cannot be allowed to take precedence over the interests and needs of the group of owners at large.
- Recognize that as a condominium owner, you have an obligation to participate in the activities of the community. That means caring about the common areas, volunteering for workdays, working on special committees, serving on the Board and meeting your financial obligations.

- Recognize that no condominium owner or their tenant(s) are exempt from the rules and regulations of the Condominium community.

As provided in the By-Laws and in order to assure the safe and peaceful use of the Condominium's facilities, the following Rules and Regulations have been adopted by the Executive Board. To the extent that these Rules and Regulations do not make reference to a particular circumstance or action, it should be assumed by all that such circumstances and actions are not permitted anywhere at the Condominium without the specific approval of the Executive Board.

The Association shall be responsible for the payment of all Common Expenses and the members shall be individually responsible for the payment of all Unit Expenses and Limited Common Expenses for the unit owned by each respective member as such expenses are herein defined. The definitions of Common Expenses and Unit Expenses below are for administrative purposes only and shall not be meant to alter or change the legal definition of the Units, Common Areas or Limited common Areas as set forth in the Declaration.

1. Common Expenses. The Association shall be responsible for the payment of all common expenses which shall include, without limitation, any expenses for the maintenance, repair, renovation, alteration, improvement as outlined in Article 4.1(a,b,c,d,e) in the Declaration of Condominium.

2. Assessment Fees. As set forth in the By-Laws of the Association, the Executive Board calculates the Assessment for Common Expenses against each Unit by dividing the total amount of the estimated funds required for the operation of the Property set forth in the budget adopted by the Executive Board for the fiscal year in question by the number of Units in the Condominium. Assessments are due and payable in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

- (a) The annual assessment against each unit can be paid in twelve monthly installments during the fiscal year. Each monthly installment is due on the 1st day of each month.
- (b) If payment is not received on or before the 15th day of any given month, a late fee of $20.00 may be assessed against the Unit.
- (c) Upon a default by a Unit Owner in the timely payment of any two consecutive installments, the maturity of the remaining total of the unpaid installments of such annual assessments may be accelerated at the option of the Executive Board, and the entire balance of the annual assessment may be declared due and payable in full by the service of notice to such effect upon the defaulting Unit Owner by the Executive Board or its representative.

(d) As outlined in the Maine Condominium Act, the Executive Board reserves the right to suspend any right or privilege of a Unit Owner who is behind in payment of the monthly assessment fees provided that such suspension cannot deny a unit owner or other occupancy access to the unit owner's unit and cannot endanger the health, safety or property of any person. Rights and privileges that can be suspended include, but are not limited to, participation in voting at association meetings and eligibility to serve on the Executive Board of the Association.

(e) The Association is not responsible for replacing any personal plantings removed by the Seller of a unit from their personal garden area. 4. Regardless of the terms of rental, the timely payment of unit monthly fees and special assessments during the rental period remains the responsibility of the unit owner. Attachment 1 - Winterization Policy

The following are requirements and recommendations for maintaining units that are left unoccupied during the winter months. Freeze-ups can be avoided by taking the following steps:

- Set the first and second story thermostats to at least 50 degrees.
- Shut off the domestic water if possible. This may not prevent frozen pipes but it will significantly reduce the damage to your home should a pipe freeze.
- To prevent exterior faucets from freezing, each faucet should be shut off from the inside of the home, as well as any water drained from the pipe by opening faucet.
- Leave bathroom and kitchen cabinet doors under sinks open to allow air circulation.
- Arrange for someone to check in at least weekly during extended periods. Provide the BBE Executive Board with the name of phone number of your caretaker.

For duplex/townhouse units: If both units will be vacant for the winter, the BBE Executive Board recommends a licensed plumber or expert to fully winterize your property. This includes draining the domestic water system, opening the sink(s) and shower(s) valves, draining toilets, washer, ice maker, etc.

If one unit will be vacant and the other occupied, the Executive Board recommends keeping the heating system operational in the vacant unit at the recommended temperature setting of at least 50 degrees. Make sure your thermostats and smoke detectors have fresh batteries installed before you leave. Water heaters should be turned off and drained (by licensed plumber) and be sure to post a sign that it should not be turned on until refilled with water.

- Contact your heating service company to check on antifreeze levels in the system.
- Arrange for someone to check on your property regularly, at least once per week. Provide the BBE Executive Board with the name and contact info. of your caretaker.

Other Considerations/Suggestions Regarding Your Absence in the Winter:

- Vents covers installed for crawl spaces
- All outside furniture carefully stowed away
- Storm windows pulled down
- All windows locked
- All outside doors locked
- A space key given to your caretaker
- Phone number provided to the BBE Executive Board or Managing Agent where you can be reached
- Make sure no garbage is left in garage and all garage doors are locked
- Leave some blinds partially open, especially on south facing sides of the home to allow for solar heating
- Do a final walk-around the property prior to leaving to ensure everything is secured

Attachment 2 - Condominium Insurance - Unit Owner Responsibilities

The Condominium Association maintains an insurance policy that covers loss or damage to the common property of the condominium. It does not cover personal property or liability of the unit owner. The Condominium Association is the policyholder, not individual unit owners.

Owner Duties in the Event of Loss or Damage

- Notify the police if a law has been broken.
- Take all reasonable steps to protect the property from further damage, and keep a record of any expenses you incur to protect the property.
- Report the damage to condominium management or the Executive Board immediately. Management will report the loss to the insurance company, file all necessary claim forms, and keep the owner advised of the settlement process.
- Do not begin to repair or replace damaged property unless and until authorized by condominium management. Doing so may affect our ability to receive benefits under the policy.
- Provide a description of when, how, and where the damage occurred.
- If requested, provide a complete list of damaged and undamaged property.
- Permit the insurance company to inspect the property.
- Cooperate with the insurance company on the investigation and settlement of the claim.

Condominium Policy Deductible The condominium policy contains a deductible. Depending on the circumstances of the loss, the deductible may be assessed against the unit owner.

Winterization Policy and Insurance Coverage The condominium in recent years has experienced several instances of frozen water pipes. Management has developed a detailed winterization policy that provides steps to be followed to minimize the likelihood of damage from freezing. This policy was incorporated into the Rules and Regulations in the fall of 2014. Failure to follow this policy will be considered negligence and may affect coverage for the unit.

Condominium Owners Insurance Condominium documents require owners to obtain insurance on their unit for damage to personal property and liability. Many condominium policies also provide coverage for loss assessments and for the COA policy deductible. It is particularly important for owners who rent their units to have adequate coverage. Owners should consult with their insurance agents to assure their coverage is appropriate.

The insurance company has informed us that Maine state insurance statutes provide the following: It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, or denial of insurance benefits.
